

Courthill Chapel Chalet, Wester Ross

Courthill Chapel is the parish church of Lochcarron and the surrounding area. It is situated in one of the most scenic parts of Wester Ross, with easy access to Torridon, Applecross, Plockton and Skye. The area abounds in places to eat, walking paths, and interesting places to visit.

The church lets a little chalet to clergy and ordinands of the Anglican Communion, but welcomes enquiries from other church people as well. We enjoy meeting people from the wider church, and will invite you to officiate or otherwise take part in our Sunday service if you would like.

The chalet provides basic accommodation for four in double and twin rooms. All facilities are provided, and the village of Lochcarron six miles away has all the usual services.

We let from May to October, but other dates are possible by arrangement. We provide duvet covers and pillowcases; but please bring bottom sheet and towels.

£190 p.w. first week, £170 p.w. for further weeks, electricity at cost.
