What to expect

This is the first pioneer gathering of its kind in Scotland.

Priests, minister and laity of all denominations are all welcome to "join in the conversation" as we explore new and innovative ways to mission in modern Scotland.

Our keynote speaker, Dr Ash Barker of the Newbegin House Community Trust, will be sharing his experiences before all delegates are invited to share their own stories.

A key aim of the conference is to create interest networks for those interested in particular areas of mission for future support and engagement.

There will be time to pray, to speak, and to socialise in the beautiful surroundings of a mediaeval converted water mill.
